Accommodated Testing Services (ATS) is the University of Toronto department that coordinates St. George Campus course quiz, term test, final exam, and online assessment accommodations for students who are registered with Accessibility Services. ● I am registered with Accessibility Services on the St. George Campus. ● I am authorized for accommodations by my Accessibility Advisor. ● I have accommodations for quizzes, tests, exams, and online assessments. For your on-campus assessments, Accommodated Testing Services coordinates on-campus space that meets the requirements of your accommodations. Accommodated Testing Services' invigilators monitor and provide as-needed support. For your online assessments, Accommodated Testing Services connects with your course instructor or administrator to ensure that your time-based accommodations, including additional writing time and break time (as applicable), are applied. If your online assessment has an availability period that spans more than one day, register for accommodations for the first date of the assessment, whether or not you plan to write on the first date. If you're unsure about whether or not you'll need your accommodations applied to an assessment, it's a good idea to go ahead and register anyway. It's easy to cancel your registration if you later decide that you don't need your accommodations after all. If you miss the accommodation registration deadline, submit a late request for accommodations by e-mail in accordance with the instructions on the Accommodation Registration Form. Accommodation Registration Form (PDF) Download Adobe Acrobat Reader Please note that accommodations are not guaranteed to late registrants. Accommodated Testing Services and/or your Accessibility Advisor will contact you regarding the outcome of your late request for accommodations. Register with Accommodated Testing Services for each timed on-campus assessment (e.g. quizzes, tests, exams) for which you would like your accommodations coordinated. Ensure that you meet the accommodation registration deadlines. If you miss the accommodation registration deadline, submit a late request for accommodations by e-mail in accordance with the instructions on the Accommodation Registration Form (PDF). Please note that accommodations are not guaranteed to late registrants. Accommodated Testing Services and/or your Accessibility Advisor will contact you regarding the outcome of your late request for accommodations. Late Requests for Accommodations If you miss the accommodation registration deadline, submit a late request for accommodations by e-mail in accordance with the instructions on the Accommodation Registration Form (PDF). Accommodated Testing Services and/or your Accessibility Advisor will contact you regarding the outcome of your late request for accommodations. On-Campus Assessment Accommodations Accommodations: When you register with Accommodated Testing Services to have your accommodations coordinated for an on-campus assessment, you will receive all of the accommodations outlined in your academic accommodation plan, as authorized by Accessibility Services. Location: Most on-campus accommodated assessments are administered at the University of Toronto's Exam Centre at 255 McCaul Street, Exam Room 340. Alternate locations may be used during midterm and final assessment periods. Date/Time: Most on-campus accommodated assessments are scheduled on the same date and at the same time as the class sitting of the assessment. Accommodated Testing Services will reschedule your assessment automatically if necessitated by your accommodations (e.g. AM Writing Only, PM Writing Only, One Test/Exam Per Day, etc.) or administrative considerations (e.g. Exam Centre closure at 10:30 PM, space and equipment availability). When your accommodations have been coordinated for your on-campus assessment, Accommodated Testing Services will send you a confirmation e-mail. Typically, you will receive this e-mail one to two business days prior to your assessment. Always read your confirmation e-mail carefully, specifically noting your accommodated assessment location (which will be separate from your classmates) and start time (which may be different than the original, non-accommodated assessment start time). If you have not yet received a confirmation e-mail from Accommodated Testing Services by 12:00 PM noon one business day prior to your on-campus assessment, please e-mail Accommodated Testing Services to inquire about the status of your assessment accommodations. UCheck: Before coming to campus, you must complete UCheck. Upon arrival at the Exam Centre, Accommodated Testing Services staff will ask you to show your green UCheck screen. Health Screening: Before coming to campus, it is recommended that you complete a health screening using the Provincial health screening tool. Mask: You must wear a mask at all times while in the Exam Centre. University of Toronto policy requires all members of the University community to wear a mask while in U of T classrooms and learning spaces. This requirement includes Accommodated Testing Services' lobby, the invigilators' office, and exam cubicles (both private and semi-private), as well as Exam Room 340's designated break areas and washrooms. Review the University's policy here. Mask Accommodation: If you have an approved mask accommodation, speak to your Accessibility Advisor about procedures in the Exam Centre before coming to campus to write an assessment. Review the University's mask accommodation guidelines here. Frequently Asked Questions I am authorized for an academic accommodation plan by Accessibility Services. Will my accommodations be automatically coordinated for all of my on-campus assessments? No. You opt-in to your accommodations on a per-assessment basis by registering with Accommodated Testing Services. Does Accommodated Testing Services know what my accommodations are? Yes. Accommodated Testing Services has access to the part of your Accessibility Services file that includes your academic accommodation plan. Can I just ask the course instructor to give me extra writing time during my in-class assessments? No. By design, your Letter of Accommodation does not include your quiz, test, exam, or online assessment accommodations. This is because Accommodated Testing Services, not individual course instructors or other course staff, coordinates these accommodations. I have a question about online assessment accommodations. Who should I contact? E-mail Accommodated Testing Services. Your Accessibility Advisor authorizes your academic accommodation plan, but they do not coordinate your accommodated assessments. You do not need to copy your Accessibility Advisor on e-mails to Accommodated Testing Services. Register with Accommodated Testing Services for each timed online assessment (e.g. quizzes, tests, exams) to which you would like your accommodations applied. Online Assessment Accommodations Accommodations: When you register with Accommodated Testing Services to have your accommodations applied to an online assessment, you will receive all of the time-based accommodations outlined in your academic accommodation plan, as authorized by Accessibility Services. Time-based accommodations may include additional writing time, self-monitored break time, and/or time-of-day requirements (e.g. AM Writing Only, PM Writing Only, One Test/Exam Per Day, etc.). Location: If your classmates are writing the standard assessment remotely at home or another off-campus self-arranged location, you will write your accommodated assessment remotely as well. Date/Time: Most online accommodated assessments are scheduled on the same date and at the same time as the class sitting of the assessment. Accommodated Testing Services will reschedule your assessment automatically if necessitated by your accommodations (e.g. AM Writing Only, PM Writing Only, One Test/Exam Per Day, etc.) When your time-based accommodations have been applied to your online assessment, Accommodated Testing Services will send you a confirmation e-mail.
